

Private Banking
For business. For family. For life.

ARBUTHNOT LATHAM
Private Bankers
Since 1833

Welcome to your Private Bank.

Designed for you, our range of seamless solutions are supported by sophisticated personal service, and a relationship that evolves over time as the understanding between you and your dedicated Private Banker deepens.

Accommodating both your personal and business needs, while helping you achieve your shorter-term and longer-term goals, your Private Banker will provide you with the highest levels of attention and expertise. Supported by a tailored offering, they will deliver advice on how to protect and grow your wealth.

Your Private Banker will also connect you to the additional expertise within Arbuthnot Latham. As your relationship with us develops, they will introduce you to our Wealth Planning and Investment Management services, where appropriate.

They also work in close partnership with your external professional advisers, ensuring all aspects of your financial world are perfectly synchronised.

Serving Your Wealth

Wherever your wealth journey takes you, having the right bank on board will ensure both your personal and financial ambitions are realised. With your best interests at our core, we are a bank united in the service of your wealth, and you can be certain that our expertise and energy will be focused on one goal.

Your background, your values, your goals – all reflections of your distinctive personality – will be listened to and adhered to across both your private and business life. Your dedicated Private Banker understands the unique world in which you move and the issues that are important to you. We aim to develop a lifelong relationship based on trust and understanding that grows day-by-day, generation by generation.

Whether handling day-to-day banking transactions, creating tailored lending facilities or building sophisticated business services to address your requirements, we are flexible in approach and responsive in execution. Big or small, simple or complex, we are ready with banking solutions to suit your situation.

This allows you the freedom to concentrate on what is important to you, knowing that your business and personal affairs are being expertly handled with sensitivity and intelligence.

Breaking The Mould

Investing in your business. Buying a home abroad. Educating your children. Subsidising a development project. Maximising your retirement. Exploring new horizons. Funding your passion.

Your requirements will change throughout your wealth journey and, at times, may break the mould of traditional Private Banking. Understanding that exceptional people create exceptional circumstances is at the heart of effective Private Banking.

Your needs are complex. Serving you in the way you want and deserve requires a smart relationship, built on understanding.

You will benefit from:

- A dedicated Private Banker who builds an immersive working relationship with you.
- The highest level of personal service tailored to fit your individual needs.
- A fair, honest and transparent fee structure.
- A comprehensive range of Private Banking services.
- A synchronised approach that caters for both your family and business requirements.
- Access to the bank's Investment Management and Wealth Planning expertise.
- An annual review of your wealth journey supplemented by regular performance reviews of your products and services.
- Expertise across a range of specialist areas, including media and entertainment, professionals, executives and international.
- Invitations to exclusive experiences including themed events, celebrity receptions, women's initiatives and networking opportunities.
- Financial insight and entertainment through our client magazine, regular reports and market updates.
